This "Liberty Pole" is one of hundreds erected in America as a symbol of the colonials' resistance to British tyranny. The poles were often 100' tall serving as places to meet or post political news. The Sons of Liberty erected the first one on May 21, 1766 in Boston. Historical records indicate these poles existed across America, especially in MA, PA, NJ, NY and Editors Note: In researching the stories on ISIS v Nazis and the oppression of Christians and Jews, respectively, we found the below web site (Radioislam) and article, "German Policy toward the Jews Prior to the War." Holocaust denier Richard Verrall, former deputy chairman of the British National Front (NF) wrote the controversial pamphlet, "Did Six Million Really Die?" under the nom de plume of Richard E. Harwood. Yes, this stuff exists on the internet for the gullible and "useful idiots," a term coined by Vladimir Lenin to describe communist sympathizers in the West.
